

Bad Arolsen,
May 14th, 2019
Page 1/2

Statement on the Return of Personal Effects

File number, T/D –

The Arolsen Archives hereby return the personal item(s) hitherto kept in their archives and formerly owned by

Last name, first name: _____

Date of birth: _____

Description of item(s): _____

to the family member determined by the Arolsen Archives

Last name, first name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Family relationship to original owner: _____

Please enclose a photocopy of valid proof of identification (e.g. driver's license or passport).

How would you like to receive the item(s)? Please mark the appropriate box:

- Please send me the item(s) by mail.
- I wish to receive the item(s) in person at the Arolsen Archives.

Online Archive / Public Relations

- I consent to photos of the item(s) returned to me remaining visible in the Arolsen Archives online archive. There the photos will now be marked "returned".

In order to call as much attention as possible to the Arolsen Archives and its valuable holdings, we report on individual fates and the return of effects (Arolsen Archives website, Facebook, Twitter, exhibition).

- Yes, I consent.

The undersigned recipient hereby confirms that he/she has informed the Arolsen Archives of all he/she knows about the identity and whereabouts of other family members, and that those family members have been informed about the abovementioned item(s) to the extent possible. The signatory also releases the Arolsen Archives from all liability that may arise through the transfer of the abovementioned item(s). The recipient is not entitled to assert any further legal claims against the Arolsen Archives. The recipient hereby confirms that the information he/she has provided is true.

Place, date: _____

Signature of the recipient: _____

Place, date: _____

Signature of the Arolsen Archives staff member in charge of the case:
