Documenting and exhibiting persecution and deportations in Europe from 1938 to 1945

Thursday, Feb. 13th, 2020, 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.
Friday, Feb. 14th, 2020, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

The two-day conference, organized in cooperation with Körber-Stiftung and the Arolsen Archives, gathers curators and scholars from museums, memorial sites and research institutions from Germany and abroad. On the basis of latest research on the extent of systematic persecution and, in particular, the deportations during National Socialism, the conference intends to discuss contemporary exhibition concepts and innovative forms of documentation and mediation through educational activities in museums and places of remembrance from different European countries and Israel.

The conference will be held in German and English language with translation. Translation of parts of the event in German sign language is possible upon request in advance. Participation is free of charge. Travel and accommodation costs cannot be covered.
