

Information on using the reading room of the Arolsen Archives

Measures to prevent the spread of COVID 19 | Last updated: August 2020

- You may only use the reading room once your registration has been confirmed. Registration must be received by the Arolsen Archives at least 10 working days before the date of your visit.
- Contactless temperature screening is performed when you enter the building. If your body temperature is above normal (over 37.5 degrees Celsius) or if you exhibit cold-like symptoms, you will not be allowed to enter the reading room.
- Please thoroughly disinfect your hands before entering the reading room. Disinfectant is provided.
- Please keep a distance of at least 1.5 meters from other users and from the staff of the Arolsen Archives.
- We ask that you bring a face covering with you and wear it in the reading room. You must wear a face covering when it is not possible to maintain a safe distance of 1.5 meters from others.
- If you come from an area that has become a COVID hotspot, please cancel your visit.
- Only limited use of the reference library is possible.
